Marion Township Board Announces Controversy Will Not Halt Plans

COURT SUIT PENDING

Developments Near in Litigation Involving County's Six 'Little Red Schoolhouses'

Although the boundary lines of Marion township school district are in controversy in an injunction suit pending in common pleas court the township school board today announced preparations to open its six one room schools Monday Sept 7 for operations as in the past

The announcement was made by F B Hinamon member of the Marion township board which through a temporary injunction obtained in probate court Aug 7 has prevented part of the county board's redistricting program from going into effect

The county board's proposal to apportion sections of Marion township among Claridon Pleasant Green Camp and Montgomery districts is in controversy in the injunction suit Developments in the court action are expected by Sept 5 the date fixed for the county board to file an answer or other counter proceedings

Program Blocked

The county board's original program called for elimination of Marion township district and its one room buildings the only little red school buildings in the county However remonstrances signed by electors living in the area affected by these proposed changes shelved the county board's program excepting for the apportionment of parts of the township district among Claridon Pleasant Green Camp and Montgomery districts

The Marion township board has arranged school bus service for all pupils living more than half a mile from the schools whereas last year the only pupils served were those living more than two miles from the building Mr Hinamon said Three additional buses will be used this year to increase the service

Teachers employed by the board are Lester H McGhee of Marion township Lawrence school Mrs Katie Watson of Clover avenue Smeltzer school Miss Elizabeth Earl of east of Marion Campbell school Miss Catherine Thew of West Fairground street Reber school Miss Gladys Pittman of Caledonia Clark school Mrs Elsie McGrew of Richwood Linn school

Two music instructors James G Menzie and Kenneth Holland of Cincinnati will provide music instruction for the six buildings

School board members said the one-room buildings will be operated as in the past regardless of the recent announcement from county and state school offices that the one room schools would not share in the state foundation program funds

Mr Hinamon said he feels there is a possibility the school will get state aid despite the previous announcement but added that the district is prepared to go ahead with its program even if no state aid is granted

Work and Improvements Assured by WPA Levy

Small Investment by City Will Yield Big Returns in Jobs and Public Projects

This is one of a series of articles to be published by The Star to acquaint Marion residents with facts showing the urgent need of approving the two special realty tax levies to be voted on at a special city election Sept 4

By BOB BAIRD
Marion Star Staff Writer

When Marion electors cast ballots Sept 4 in a special city election on the proposed one and one-half mill realty tax levy for city WPA projects they are asked by city officials and members of the WPA workers league to keep in mind that

(1) Out of every dollar spent in WPA projects in Marion the city would have to furnish in cash only about 10 to 12 cents

(2) Most of the 600 employable heads of Marion families would be given jobs at which they could earn an average of $5.80 a month enough to take them and their families off relief If all of the 600 were given work their pay roll would pour an additional $31,650 into the channels of business here

(3) WPA projects will make possible at a small cost many permanent municipal improvements which the city eventually would have to finance completely if the levy is not favored Sept 4

(4) Marion along with the rest of the nation is paying for the WPA program but will not share in it unless funds are raised through the levy to pay the sponsor's share of the cost of projects

City's Cost Low

Theoretically the government pays approximately 80 per cent of the cost of projects leaving 20 per cent to the city However the city is given credit for engineering services and the rental of its equipment in lieu of cash and these credits in the past have cut the city's actual outlay of money on projects to 10 to 12 cents for every dollar spent in projects it was explained

The WPA now has approximately 600 persons on its payroll in Marion At one time it had 1175 John Abel county relief director estimates there are 600 employable members of relief families eligible for WPA jobs indicating the city could have as many as 1,200 on WPA jobs if the projects to employ them were available

It is significant Mr Abel said that a majority of the men we are anxious to put to work are common laborers between the ages of 40 and 60 This group will not be absorbed readily by private industry most of the shops that are now going good require skilled workers and they don't like to employ men who are up in years

Helps Solve Relief Problem

Every time a man is laid off WPA and returned to the relief rolls it means we must spread the available relief money among a greater number of people Lay offs the WPA already has made due to lack of projects has resulted in relief allowances being cut to a miserably low level Many undernourished children in large relief families can't have milk because we don't have enough funds to buy milk for them

F W Davis chairman of the special levy committee of the WPA workers league today urged that voters give serious consideration to the one and one half mill levy emphasizing that in return for an increase in realty taxes of 15 cents per $100 of valuation Marion residents would receive many benefits Employable men in relief families want work he said If they are given work through the WPA the city will get many worthwhile improvements at only a fraction of their full cost and at the same time much money will be put into circulation among Marion stores through WPA payrolls

Registration Ends Saturday

He reminded Marion residents that the deadline for registering or transferring registrations for the Sept 4 special election is next Saturday The WPA workers league he said will make arrangements for the windup of its campaign favoring the levy at a meeting Thursday night in the Junior Order hall Any one having questions about the WPA levy is welcome to attend the meeting or to call at WPA levy headquarters on the second floor of the Eagles building he said

City officials already have been discussing a number of projects that probably will be suggested if the levy carries The ones now tentatively planned would give employment to approximately 200 men for a period of six months.

One of the proposed projects calls for widening South Prospect street from Church street to Hill street, adding five-foot concrete strips to both sides of the street between Church and Columbia streets and adding three feet on each side from Columbia to Hill

Alley Work Scheduled

Another is an alley macadamizing program calling for improvement of 1.66 miles of alleys by applying two four-inch courses of dry rolled macadam which would later be surface treated to bind the pavement in place.

Others under discussion are construction of a storm sewer to drain a low section of East Church and East Center streets where water now stands in streets and cellars become partially filled with water [illegible]

WATER PROBLEM GRAVE IN SOUTHWESTERN OHIO

Drouth Has Dried Streams and Wells Necessitating Hauling of Beverage from Distant Points.

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, O., Aug 26—Water has become a problem to thousands of residents of southwestern Ohio

Streams dried up by drouth, failing wells and a falling underground water table have made acute the problem of an adequate supply

Farmers have suffered most. Hundreds of them daily load barrels, milk cans and glass jugs into automobiles and trucks and drive miles to municipal water plants where they get water at a nominal charge.

A few small towns have encountered difficulty but the cities that hold the majority of southwestern Ohio's million residents have escaped the pinch of a shortage.

A few have become concerned, however Five Cincinnati suburbs, alarmed at a 15-foot drop in the water level in Millcreek valley in as many months, protested a federal government proposal to sink additional wells to supply water for its new Greenhills housing project near Mt. Healthy

Their protest caused government officials to look to the city of Cincinnati for water to supply the project, and negotiations were [illegible] for a rate that would [illegible] abandonment of the [illegible] plans.

Democratic Leader Denies Sale of Newspaper Stock to Permit Holders

Declares Fired Employe Fomented Dispute Through Attorney General's Office

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Aug 26—Democratic Chairman Francis W Poulson asserted today that stock in The Ohioan official publication of the state Democratic committee is not sold to liquor permit holders

Poulson testified at the state liquor board's hearing on complaints by Clarence Harrison a Columbus permit holder that he paid $600 to The Ohioan as insurance against revocation of his license

The Democratic chieftain during a sharp verbal tilt with Isadore Topper assistant attorney general asserted that the Harrison incident was inspired by the office of John Bricker

Attorney General Bricker is the Republican nominee for governor

Says Blackmail Attempted

Poulson said he first heard of Harrison's complaint when Carl Dellenbaugh discharged state liquor inspector came in and tried to blackmail me and get a job back

After that he told me he had turned the matter over to John Bricker that he was acting for John Bricker and that he was going to explode the matter through relations of the Wolfe paper interests (owners of two Columbus newspapers) Poulson testified

Poulson charged that Harrison's affidavit of complaint was prepared in Bricker's office but under cross examination by Topper he said he had no direct knowledge of this

It was just what I heard he added

Poulson identified himself as president of the Ohioan

He said no employe was authorized to sell stock to anyone and we don't sell stock in The Ohioan to liquor permit holders"

Poulson said he had heard about the share of stock in The Ohioan sold to Harrison shortly after he dismissed Charles S Gregg as

TRAIN DERAILED AT LEADER ST. BRIDGE

Locomotive and Three Cars of Big Four Freight Leave Tracks.

The locomotive tender and two cars of a Big Four freight train were derailed on the Leader street bridge this morning about 7 o'clock.

The tender, the first car to be derailed, plunged on down the track for more than 50 feet before the train came to a stop.

The other derailed cars were an oil tank car and a gondola, the first two cars back of the tender. Only the front trucks of the gondola left the racks. All three cars remained upright.

H. V. Bordwell, Erie railroad trainmaster here, who directed the work of righting the cars, said the cars were thrown from the track by an open derail attachment, about 50 feet west of Leader street.

The train was bound from Cleveland to Bellefontaine, and consisted of 94 cars, mostly empties, N C Dunn of Cleveland was the engineer.

An Erie railroad wrecking crew from the Marion yards spent about two hours righting the cars, using a steam-operated crane.

4 STATES HUNT LIMA SUSPECT

Alleged Leader of Black Legion Flees Columbus After Appearance at Hearing

DAVEY NOT IN CAPITAL

His Secretary Had Hinted at Approval of Papers Demanding Surrender.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O Aug 26 — Gov Martin L Davey decided today to take under advisement for a few days the requested extradition of Virgil F Effinger of Lima to Michigan to face charges in connection with alleged Black legion terrorist activities

The governor's decision was announced at his office here following a telephone call from Charles Leasure one of his secretaries, who conducted an extradition hearing yesterday

Authorities of four states pushed today a hunt for Effinger named by Prosecutor Duncan McCrea of Detroit as national commander of the hooded order Effinger disappeared after making one appearance at yesterday's hearing

Hints at Approval

Leasure gave no indication what angles of the case the governor wished to study further He had indicated strongly that he would recommend approval of the extradition of the portly cigar smoking Effinger

I am submitting the papers of evidence in the Effinger case to the governor today said Leasure A decision will be reached as soon as possible

Guy W Jensen assistant Michigan attorney general and John A Ricca assistant Detroit prosecutor said they would return immediately to Detroit taking with them a staff of investigators who had been assisting in the search for Effinger

We are very sorry of course that the extradition was delayed Jensen said but there is nothing further we can accomplish here now

Due In Detroit

Ricca said he was due in Detroit Monday for the prosecution of another Black legion indictment

Jensen voicing criticism of the police at Lima for failing to arrest Effinger said he probably had gone to Pennsylvania or Illinois to stay with friends Mrs Effinger said in Lima however that her husband was in Columbus

Police in Pennsylvania Ohio Indiana and Illinois were asked by Jensen to pick up Effinger as a fugitive from justice on separate warrants sworn out here and in Lima

If he's picked up in another state Jensen said we'll get some real cooperation in bringing him to face the charges The Lima police have done little to cooperate with us or we'd have him now

During yesterday's hearing Leasure overruled numerous technical objections by Effinger's counsel Then as Leasure indicated he would recommend honoring the Michigan request the portly electrical contractor disappeared

Deputies Wait

Franklin county (Columbus) deputies waited in the state house corridor to detain him on warrants which the Columbus municipal court had granted Michigan authorities but he was gone

In Lima a Detroit deputy sheriff Alfred Farrell swore out another fugitive warrant and gave it to Lima police. A squad of patrolmen watched Effinger's home all night, but he did not appear.

Leasure told Effinger's counsel, Clarence Miller, that the Michigan extradition papers were "entirely sufficient" to warrant extradition and added:

"You might be able to convince a court of your objections but I doubt it. I must say these are as complete a set of extradition papers as I have ever seen They go far beyond the requirements of the law.

"You can test in court every objection you have raised here. In habeas corpus proceedings you can test also the issue of flight, whether Effinger actually is a fugitive from Michigan as charged."

Miller had said that if a rendition warrant were issued he would appeal immediately for a writ of habeas corpus in Lima.

Marion's School Boy Patrols Prepare To Answer Call for Service; 200 Enrolled for Active Duty

When school bells call Marion's thousands of boys and girls to public and parochial schools on Tuesday morning, Sept. 8, they also will call some 200 or more boys for active duty as school boy patrols.

To some it will mean just a re-donning of the white belt and badge, the insignia of the patrol, and to others it will be the realization of a schoolboy ambition to be of service to his school and companions by serving as a leader in the observance of traffic rules and regulations and in the prevention of injuries to his schoolmates.

Inaugurated first in St. Mary Parochial school in September, 1931, and a year later at Central Junior High school, the city now has five schools where school boy patrols direct student traffic.

Sponsored throughout the [illegible] states by the American Automobile association, the movement has [illegible] the [illegible] support of the Marion Automobile club, whose officials not only see that the boys have badges and other necessary [illegible] was of [illegible] rules [illegible] provided [illegible] amount of pride in the work of the boys throughout the year. At the close of the school year the club presents the boys with certificates of merit for their work.

Two Major Purposes

School boy safety patrols are organized for two specific purposes. The major one is to guard the school children from the menace of traffic and the other one has to provide [illegible] orderly dismissal of children from school. Patrols are organized to direct children, not traffic, the sponsors emphasize.

In checking the results of the patrols in the Marion schools it has been proved that there has been a material decrease in accidents and in many of the schools there has not been a single accident since the patrol has been in force.

There is a lesson in the observance of the school boy patrol for the adult pedestrian and motorist whose duty it is as a citizen to be interested in the welfare of his community and his city, the sponsors believe. While the school boy patrol is not an official patrolman he is for the time a boy policeman with the safeguarding of hundreds of children in his keeping and motorists are asked and expected to recognize him as such.

What It Teaches

The patrol is an excellent method of teaching safety on the highway and is an exercise in good citizenship. From trial and observation it does teach children to stop at the curb before crossing, to look both ways, to walk, not run, across a street. Children are taught not to cross in the middle of a block and not to jay walk but to cross at right angles and at street intersection.

It teaches the individual the proper way to come to school, which is essential since it is impossible to organize patrols to conduct children the entire distance from home to school. Under this form of dismissal schoolyards and neighborhoods are cleared of children in much less time than without it.

Cooperating with the sponsors and patrols are the school faculty, Chief William F. Marks and the city police. Members of the faculty serve as advisors and throughout the year teachers and patrol leaders hold regular meetings during which plans and problems connected with the work are discussed. Representatives of the Marion Automobile club and patrolmen from the city police force give talks on safety, traffic rules and regulations and other matters of material benefit to the school children throughout the year.

Have Regular Schedule

The patrol boys are dismissed about two minutes before the regular school assembly to give them time to don their official badges and be at their posts by the time the children are leaving the school buildings. Their task is finished for the period from 10 to 15 minutes after the school session is dismissed. In addition to directing school traffic on the street the boys help out on the school playgrounds at basketball and football games and other recreational sports.

At Central Junior High school, where the largest patrol is maintained, a court has been established and here offenders of the patrol traffic rules are tried and sentence pronounced. Infraction of the rules call for time after school or similar punishment.

To become a member of the patrol the boys submit their names to the school faculty or person in charge of the patrol and these are passed on by the school heads and staff.

The children as a whole appreciate the effort being made to safeguard their lives and parents have on numerous occasions expressed their praise. At all schools the heads report little infraction of the rules and the children soon learn the meaning of the signals of the red flag in the hands of the patrol leader.

St. Mary's Parochial school patrol was organized under the direction of Mrs. Della V. Gallagher, then secretary of the Marion Automobile club, and Miss Blanche Ward, safety supervisor in the state department of safety. The boys, approximately 20, were chosen from the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. They chose as their captain Robert McNamara and as his assistant Richard Amann, both at that time ninth grade pupils. After two years of service the patrol was entertained at dinner by the Marion automobile club and were awarded certificates.

On Duty Each Year

Each year since its organization the patrol has directed traffic in the vicinity of the school at both morning and afternoon dismissals.

The opening of school this year will mark the sixth [illegible] of the patrol and as has been the custom in the past three years members will be selected from the [illegible] high school under the direction of the Sister Superior and [illegible] William J. Spickerman.

The patrol was organized at Central Junior High school under the direction of Miss Grace Colvin, who later was transferred to Vernon Heights [illegible] she was succeeded by A. T. Allen. Enrollment in the patrol varies between 60 and [illegible] boys throughout the year. The school has a clear record so far as accidents are concerned since the patrol was inaugurated.

Sixth grade boys constitute the patrol at the Pearl Street school building, where slightly more than 30 boys were on call throughout the school term last year.

Miss Elma Howser, principal at the school, is the patrol supervisor. She holds weekly meetings with her school police force to discuss traffic problems and the newest ideas in safety measures. Traffic posts at this school are at the light in front of Pearl street, the corner of Hill and Prospect streets, [illegible] Bellefontaine avenue and in front of the administration building.

Edison and Vernon Heights

Traffic problems are not so hazardous at Thomas A. Edison Junior high school and here the boys guard the halls at the noon hour and for basketball games throughout the year.

The first week of school will find the school boy patrol at Vernon Heights Junior High school organizing for the term. The work there was organized three years ago by Miss Grace Colvin, who served as leader since that time. Approximately 25 boys take part in patrol activities throughout the year, assisting at recreational sports. There are no serious traffic hazards at the school except at times when road building and repair make detours necessary. Enrolling in the patrol are boys from the seventh, eighth and ninth grades.

The School Boy patrol is a fine thing for the school children in the opinion of Rev. Father William J. Spickerman, head of St. Mary Parochial school. It teaches the children a lasting lesson of caution in traffic and also develops a sense of responsibility which cannot but make for good citizenship, he says. In addition the little weekly meetings of the boys in which the problems of traffic are discussed, they are of benefit in the establishment of good fellowship and fair play.

The fact that there has never been a traffic accident since the patrol was organized at Central Junior High school tells the story of the benefit and efficiency of the organization, is the tribute of Superintendent C. A. Hudson, head of the public schools. The work is efficiently handled by the boys and the people are responding to the movement with a most cooperative spirit. It is working most successfully at the buildings where it has been established and the boys are entering into the work wholeheartedly and are doing some really fine work.

Judge Praises Work

There should be a great response in the part of every citizen to the work of the School Boy patrol which plays such an important part in the prevention of traffic accidents to school boys and girls, is the opinion of Judge Oscar Gast, president of the Marion Automobile club, sponsor of the work here. Aside from the value of the patrols in saving lives and preventing injuries to their schoolmates, the training offered creates a new sense of responsibility among members and brings about a friendly relationship between patrol members and police officers which makes [illegible].

There is [illegible] more [illegible] of the school boy patrol [illegible] and I am only [illegible] a part of the [illegible] was [illegible] of Police Chief William F. Marks. It is a great aid to every boy growing up [illegible] makes them more keenly [illegible] importance of safety and more alert to things going on about them. There is nothing more important in the physical and economic life of the country than the prevention of injury to children. It is a real tragedy for a youngster to have to go through life suffering from a physical injury which might have been averted.

Serving with Judge Gast as officers and board of directors are [illegible] Hill, treasurer; M. L. Ball, [illegible] secretary-treasurer and club secretary; Fred W. Warner, club attorney; Carl Watrous, M. C. Walters, [illegible] and [illegible] Jay H. Vaughan, Dr. E. J. Brady, Morgan [illegible] and L. A. Axe.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT FACE PIMPLES

These disfiguring little spots often result from a slight temporary disturbance, or merely from incorrect cleansing, or sometimes they are more persistent due to deeper internal causes.

While properly treating the underlying cause you can relieve the itchy burning soreness and help your skin by using an ointment that will keep the medication in contact with the pimply spots. Apply it every night and leave it on all night. It does a world of good.

For more than 40 years people have used Resinol Ointment to fill his need. It soothes the irritation and aids healing. It also treats the oil pores where many surface pimples start. Washing first with Resinol Soap quickens the pleasing results.

Buy a jar of Resinol Ointment and cake of Resinol Soap from any druggist. For free sample write Resinol, Dept. 10, Baltimore, Md.

Marion Schools Add To List of Free Text Books

Another step in the program of the city board of education and the state department of education toward free text books for public school pupils has been taken this year in preparation for the 1935-36 school term to begin Tuesday.

Changes made this year together with those of the past result in the board of education furnishing approximately half of the text books required in the public schools, C. A. Hudson, superintendent of city schools, said.

The city board began its program of free text books about four years ago. Last year the movement received impetus from the state which began a four year program for all public schools in Ohio to furnish their text books. The state's program to be completed in two more years gives the city board two more years after the coming term in which to complete its purchase of text books.

Most of the free books for this term are offered in the elementary grades, Supt. Hudson explained. This is because the board's aim while spreading the program over a period of years was to buy the text books for classes in which the former text books were weakest or most out of date. In making arrangements for free textbooks the board made changes replacing out of date books with more modern ones.

Additions to List

Free books offered this year by the board include two in the senior high school grades whereas no free books were furnished last year in those grades. The two available this year are Elements of Physics by Millikan Gale & Pyle, a revision of a book formerly used, and Plane Geometry by Wentworth & Smith, an entirely new book.

In the junior high school grades free books offered this year are as follows: Ninth grade—Latin (text books to be announced later by the teacher), Introduction to Business Workbook Part I by Kirk Buckley & Waesche, Introduction to Business Workbook Part II and Workbook in Home Making by Greer (foods). No free textbooks are offered in the eighth and seventh grades.

In the elementary grades free textbooks are available as follows:

Sixth grade— Elementary English in Action grade VI, Nations Beyond the Seas by Atwood Thomas (geography), Historic Background of Our U. S. by Woodburn & Hill, The Music Hour book V.

Fifth grade— Unit Masters Arithmetic grade V, Elementary English in Action grade V, The Americas by Atwood Thomas (geography), The Music Hour book IV, The Birth and Growth of Our Nation by Clark Gordy (history).

Fourth grade — Elementary English in Action grade IV, Home Life in Far Away Lands by Atwood Thomas (geography), The Music Hour book III.

Third grade — Unit Masters Arithmetic grade III, Elementary English in Action grade III, The Music Hour book II.

Second grade— Progress in Spelling IVI, The Music Hour book I.

First grade—None.

Work Book Not Included

In order that there may not be a misunderstanding Supt. Hudson emphasis that the schools will not furnish what are known as work books even when the program of free text books is fully in effect.

The work books he explained are written for use with a certain specific text books and contain blank spaces for the pupils to fill in. They can not be used over and each pupil will be obliged to purchase the necessary work books most of which are inexpensive.

To keep down the city school board's investment in free text books certain books such as those used in junior high social science will be purchased only in small numbers. For example 40 books may be purchased for the course and these books will be used in a series of daily classes by as many as 160 pupils it was explained. The books will be kept in the class rooms and pupils will study them there under supervision of the teacher. Only the pupil's own work book will be carried to and from the class. The work book directs the pupil's study, outlines tests and to some extent governs the teaching of the course. The social science course referred to is a combination of what in past years consisted of separate courses in geography, civics and history.

Used in English Study

The same method of teaching is followed in English which now combines what formerly were separate courses in spelling, English composition and English literature. In this course the text books will be kept in the classroom and studied there with the pupil taking only his work book to and from the classroom. In these combined courses offered at all three of the city's junior high schools the individual recitation period is 75 minutes in length as compared with the usual [illegible] class period. The additional time [illegible] used to give pupils an opportunity for [illegible] of [illegible] text books as well as [illegible]

The grouping of related subjects as in [illegible] and English reduces the junior high school program in [illegible] way to four major fields—English, social science, mathematics and natural sciences, Mr Hudson explained. It has the advantage of teaching the subjects in their relationship to each other.

HUDSON REVIEWS SCHOOL 1936 FINANCIAL OUTLOOK

Will Operate for First Full Year Under New State Foundation Program

Although the financial program for the coming term in the Marion public schools is not complete it is expected the schools will be in as good condition financially as in the past term C. A. Hudson, superintendent of the city schools, said today.

The term to begin Tuesday Sept 8 will be the first full one under the state's new foundation program which went into effect last Jan 1.

Under this program the state has guaranteed to furnish $30.00 for each elementary pupil and $45.00 for each high school pupil each year on the basis of the average daily attendance. This will be supplemented with local tax funds to round out the school financial picture.

The school foundation program has brought with it an upward adjustment in salaries of teachers who until last January were working under pay cuts that averaged approximately 20 per cent.

The salaries of instructors were adjusted by the board this year to effect approximately an average increase of 13 per cent. The increase was made effective as of last Jan 1 but the actual payment of the increases has been held up by delays in forwarding state foundation funds to the city schools.

Under the foundation program the city schools are due to get approximately $19,000 quarterly. This money comes from state taxes on sales, gasoline and intangible personal property.

The schools' financial outlook will not take definite form until tax rates are made up by the county budget commission next fall to determine how much local tax money the schools will get.

Aside from the increase in teachers' salaries and the additional cost of furnishing part of the textbooks free, school operating expenses are not expected to change materially from those of the 1934-35 term.

Expenditures of the last term have not been summarized but Supt. Hudson estimated they will amount to approximately $360,000 or $20,000 more than in the 1934-35 term. The increase is due to the adjustment of teachers' salaries since Jan 1.

The $340,000 operating figure for the 1934-35 term represents an expenditure of $53.78 for each pupil in school that term. A comparison with operating expenses of 108 other Ohio cities for the same term shows that in the 1934-35 term 93 cities spent more per pupil in educating their children while only 1? spent less than Marion. The per pupil cost in the 108 cities ranged from $41.87 to $178.01 as compared with Marion's $53.78.

Outlook for St. Mary Sports Program Good

Basketball Team May Join League of Six Nations To Replace Norwalk School

A big sports year is in the offing for students of the St Mary parochial school this year augmented by the possibility that the school may for the first time be affiliated with a basketball league.

Bob Kelly, St Mary physical director, announced today that it is probable the St Mary basketball team will become a member of the League of Six Nations, a loop consisting of the Upper Sandusky, Carey, Crestline, Tiffin Calvert and Fostoria St Wendelin High schools.

If St Mary enters the league it will replace Norwalk's St Paul High school which is dropping out this year. The only development that would prevent St Mary from becoming a member of the league would be a decision by league officials to operate a five team loop, Kelly said.

In case St Mary does not join the league it will continue to meet league members on an independent basis, Kelly explained. Last year St Mary defeated Fostoria St Wendelin in two games and broke even in two games with Upper Sandusky.

Season Opening

The parochial team will open its basketball season the first week after Thanksgiving. Among the games so far booked are with Springfield Central Catholic at Springfield, Columbus Aquinas there and possibly a return game here, Columbus Holy Family in two games, one at Columbus and one here. In addition St Mary probably will meet Prospect and LaRue again this year. Dates for the games have not been set.

St Mary hung up a presentable record in basketball last year winning [illegible] and losing six games before entering the district tournament at Westerville. The school lost to Bremen O. in the first round, Bremen going on to the semi finals.

Three lettermen were lost by graduation, Kelly said. They are Gene Maxwell, center, John Fusco, guard and Gontron Reid, forward.

Lettermen who will be playing again this season will be Joe Robbins, a senior at guard, Jack Schuler and Louis Myers, juniors at forwards and James Fellner, also a junior, at a guard post. Kelly also said he has sighted several promising players in the sophomore class.

Sports Program

The school's sports program will get under way within two weeks after the opening of high school on Sept 14, Kelly said. The first phase will be an interclass program of touch football with four teams competing. The eighth and ninth grades will make up one team while each of the three other high school classes will furnish a team.

A three round tourney will be played for the school championship, games to be played two nights a week. The Silk Mill field was used for the games last year with the [illegible] winning the school title.

Next spring will find the school still [illegible] of an interclass track program [illegible] the third annual track and field day [illegible] Marion County [illegible]. All classes from the fifth grade up will compete in the meet which usually is held at the last of May. The [illegible] class won the [illegible] at last year's meet.

Interclass [illegible] will [illegible] next spring for the first time, Kelly announced. A similar program was held last year although not on an interclass basis. Four teams were chosen from the student body with [illegible] Rummies winning out in a round robin tourney. The team was captained by [illegible] one of this year's varsity basketball players.

Girls of the school will have their [illegible] program starting this fall with speedball. Basketball and volleyball will be their winter sports to be followed by archery in the spring.

The girls archery program last year was conducted in the laboratories and outdoors using the Marion Steam Shovel gym for the former and the Silk Mill field for the outdoor part. Mrs Robert Kelly, the former Margaret Maloney, directed the girls program last year.

One Plot After Another

Tr[illegible] [illegible] new [illegible] revolut[illegible] fol [illegible] which [illegible] Mo[illegible] plots [illegible] counter plots [illegible] revolution[illegible]

Spanish [illegible] Mexican history is so full of examples of the wave of reaction upsetting new regimes it seems hardly necessary to cite [illegible] instances. It will be remembered though that in Mexico in 1913 Huerta aided Madero to overthrow Diaz then deposed and assassinated Madero. Carranza and Villa then combined to unseat Huerta whereupon Villa led a revolution against Carranza.

In the French revolution that supposedly spontaneous uprising of the masses brought factional strife. Marat was murdered by Charlotte Corday an adherent of one of the revolutionary sects. Danton after remaining in power for several months was overcome by Robespierre and Robespierre himself finally yielded to a combination of moderates and royalists.

In the recent Russian conspiracy trial perhaps the explanation of the phenomenon can be found. Kamenev, Zinoviev and Trotsky—although the last named was not on trial—was found guilty of plotting to overthrow the Stalin regime. Moreover some of the defendants fully admitted that lust for power motivated them. They even would have flirted with fascism in order to gain control of Russia.

It is not too far fetched to assume the lust for power motivates many Russians not yet implicated in the conspiracy as well as some holding high positions today. If that be true it is not unreasonable to assume that the lust for power will be the chief motivation of the Russian order in the event that economic incentives should ever be eradicated. Most Americans would prefer trusting their well being to the interplay of economic forces than to the competition for power. If they win in the economic game their rewards will be tangible. If they lose the race for power their lives might be forfeited.

Floyd B. Olson

With the death of Floyd B. Olson governor of Minnesota the future of the Farmer-Labor party in his state must remain in doubt.

It was largely the vigor and incisiveness of Gov. Olson which gave the party dominance in Minnesota politics. Taking over the leadership when elected governor in 1930 the young executive vitalized and coordinated agrarian discontent and led his forces to successive victories at the polls. The Farmer-Laborites adopted a program that differed radically from anything offered by Republicans or Democrats but the group was confessedly old line in its determination to build a machine that would keep it in office.

Floyd B. Olson came to personify his party. At the time of his death he was headed for the United States senate with victory in November almost assured. Mainly through his influence the full weight of his party and of similar groups in the agriculture area was thrown behind President Roosevelt. After 1936 would come the interesting question of 1940. The name of Olson was prominent among the men mentioned for national labor party leadership four years hence.

But with the passing of this colorful and forceful leader a [illegible] chief of equal strength and vigor will [illegible] to be found if the Farmer-Labor party is going to remain dominant in Minnesota. In any event Minnesota which seemed safe for Roosevelt now must be considered doubtful.

They [illegible] be content to let their beloved Normandie play lady in waiting to the new queen.

Whatever they decide to do they [illegible] have to think in terms of bigger better and faster for announcement already has been made that the Britons are going to build a [illegible] sister ship to the Queen Mary.

Strength from the People.

[illegible] and the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] In fact [illegible] [illegible] for [illegible]

[illegible] the federal government [illegible] should be [illegible] talk [illegible] which [illegible] [illegible] of any [illegible]

[illegible] significance of his first [illegible] the Republican nominee referred [illegible] in one talk. Tracing the history of the system of free education in America he stressed the fact that our founding fathers did not use the influence of the national government to establish or develop our educational institutions. The movement for free public schools came from the people themselves he declared. It must remain with them.

A few years ago such talk might have been described as a ghost baiting effort. Listeners justly might have accused the governor of crying Wolf Wolf when only a few local political sheep were trying to make petty graft out of community school boards. But today the situation is vastly different. The heavy hand of government is stretching out in an ever widening circle. Individual schools may not yet have been touched but it cannot be denied as Gov. Landon implied that a powerful propaganda machine is working day and night in support of the present administration. Sooner or later the educational stream would be polluted.

In common with many of his fellow citizens Gov. Landon does not want to wait until that sooner or later day arrives. He believes the people still are in control of the educational system they gave to the country but they will remain so only through the process of free government. He is not alone in his conviction that the processes of free government are being threatened today as never before.

Repentance

A furor of indignation has followed Kentucky's recent third public hanging, the New York Times reports. The press has been deluged with letters from horrified subscribers who cry that they will hereafter be ashamed to acknowledge their nativity away from home.

Without feeling immensely superior to our neighbor state—for we have motes in our own eyes—Ohioans might say: Well we're not surprised. Nor is there occasion for surprise that the better people of Kentucky have risen to protest the sordid carnival which accompanied the public hanging. The more details of the spectacle that are revealed the stronger becomes the conviction that the public nature of the hanging gave every incentive for unleashing of the baser emotions which were displayed at Owensboro.

Since there is no evidence that this grotesque method of punishment deters anyone from criminal assault probably here is an instance in which there should be a law about that. Strangely enough a simple law nullifying the old statute is all that would be required.

Glancing Backward

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Thursday Aug. 26 1926

The honor guard of Fascisti which had been placed at the chapel where the body of Rudolph Valentino lay in state was removed because of feeling aroused in anti Fascisti ranks. This decision ended a tense situation but New York police announced they would be on guard at St. Malachi's church Monday when the funeral services were to be held.

Idaho Pulls Wool Over Uncle Sam

Federal Government Pours $27,000,000 Into State While Surplus Is Built Up in Own Treasury

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright 1936 by The Marion Star)

BOISE, THE CITY OF IDAHO, Aug. 26—[illegible]

[illegible] what the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] what would [illegible] have [illegible]

[illegible] started an investigation at [illegible] the treasury of the state of Idaho [illegible] [illegible] condition and [illegible] nothing during the depression [illegible] come as a surprise—it has actually retired debt and [illegible] has [illegible] in the treasury [illegible] in the last three years has [illegible] $27,000,000 out of the federal government for [illegible]

If [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] state [illegible] to [illegible] to get [illegible] such an amount of federal aid [illegible] itself to pay [illegible] own local [illegible] it is Idaho [illegible] of the information [illegible] substantiating this contention can be found in a message communicated to the state legislature just about a month ago—July 28 to be exact. Here are a few facts taken from that message:

1. The state of Idaho had a cash balance of [illegible] Dec 31 1930 and a current debt of $3[illegible] or a net asset deficit of only $[illegible]

2. After five years of depression—Dec 31 1935 the governor said that "we find a cash balance of $3,[illegible] against which there were no notes outstanding and only $103,[illegible] of warrants payable leaving a net cash surplus in the treasury of $3[illegible]"

3. As for the long term debt it was $8,211,[illegible] in 1930 but after five years of depression on March 31 1936 there remained only $2,50[illegible] of outstanding debt about which the governor says frankly "If the present financial policy of the state of Idaho is continued by the end of 1938 the total bonded debt of the state of Idaho could be retired."

Now what is the present financial policy of the state of Idaho? Again one does not need to resort to argument but merely to take the words of the Democratic governor himself. He said in a public address on April [illegible] 1935:

"The states around us had paid for those who needed relief. Utah had paid $1,000,000 a year. Oregon and Washington had paid their share and Wyoming and Nevada their share.

"Idaho had not contributed and do you know why Idaho had not contributed and matched the government money as Utah and all the states around us? I don't know any other reason but that we had a Scotch governor that talked them out of it. We got it for two years and Uncle Sam paid the bill.

"And what has happened since? The WPA is still going on out here. There were 11,000 cases at the peak. There are 5,200 still on the rolls. They had an excellent relief system here before the federal government took it over—nobody starved. Today the federal government still pours money into Idaho and yet the sales tax imposed by Gov. Ross and the other taxes has given the state treasury more money than it really knows what to do with. So the last session saw an increase in the bureaucracy of the state. The number of employes has risen from 1,000 to 2,500 on the state payroll. But even this leaves a surplus."

The governor reveals it in his recent message thus:

"The receipts of the general fund are running well over the budgetary requirements. The regular session authorized a million dollar ad valorem tax for each of the two years in the present biennium, this two million dollars thought necessary together with the estimated revenues from other sources to provide the necessary money to meet general fund expenditures.

"The actual receipts received will run far in excess of the estimates and it is safe to say it will not be necessary for the state board of equalization to place an ad valorem levy of any kind upon personal and real property for general fund purposes during the year 1936. In fact the actual receipts of the first 18 months of the present biennium plus conservative estimates for the next six months reveals that there will be a balance of approximately $500,000 in the general fund over and above the total authorized expenditures without any 1936 ad valorem tax for general fund purposes.

"Therefore after diverting that portion of the sales tax revenue that was originally intended for the general fund to social security and relief purposes there should be a balance in the general fund at the end of the biennium after all claims of every kind and nature have been paid of approximately $100,000."

The foregoing evidence would seem to indicate that Idaho has and has had plenty of taxing capacity to meet its own needs throughout the depression but Uncle Sam paid out $2[illegible],000,000 because the new dealers in Washington didn't investigate the financial capacity of Idaho with sufficient care—or else as is charged they thought that by giving Gov. Ross what he wanted his political prestige would rise sufficiently to enable him to beat Senator Borah. Mr. Ross had a hard fight to win the primary but Senator Borah will be reelected. And eastern and middlewestern taxpayers will pay for somebody's mistake in judgment.

Men and Affairs Under The Washington Spotlight

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26—Certain high Republican counselors are supposed to have suggested to Gov. Landon an extension of the new method of campaigning with which he has been experimenting. They want him to:

Make no more than four additional speeches.

Embark on a more extensive campaign tour than any presidential candidate has ever tried devoting six weeks or more to get acquainted visits to every town on a railroad making only short frank talks thinking out loud shaking hands smiling being himself.

Institute a new kind of publicity campaign designed to dramatize the Landon personality with human little stories about his likes, dislikes, habits, etc.

Developments along that line may be expected.

The argument is heard increasingly among Republican authorities that the Kansan is not dramatizing his opposition to President Roosevelt. His speeches lack great luster they say. The crowd wants more snappy phrases more aggressiveness in talk and action more punch. This they contend is necessary to arouse all the Roosevelt opposition and swing it into line behind his leadership.

Hesitancy

Some of Mr. Roosevelt's advisers had their fingers crossed when he left for the west. His trip has been curtailed in an effort to make it snappy and straight to the point. The first stop scheduled was Bismarck N. D. A. the same time they were not certain how it would come out.

As they look at it Mr. Roosevelt has been getting along all right and is gambling with fortune in this latest venture. The meeting with Landon is considered an extremely delicate undertaking requiring very careful handling.

In view of the unusual circumstances the trip was more carefully planned step by step and word by word than any the President has made before. These arrangements have somewhat allayed apprehensions about the political reaction to the trip but not entirely.

Debate

You can start an argument in any capital corridor by bringing up the subject of whether the drouth has helped or hurt Mr. Roosevelt.

Democratic arguers can prove it was a typical stroke of Roosevelt luck because it gave him a chance to demonstrate his theories of federal relief and control. Republican rebutters present an equally firm argument that rising prices [illegible] causing dissatisfaction. They both may be right before election day. The exhibition of new deal relief work is now on. Rising prices have only begun. Cities will undoubtedly begin to feel the pinch first. The only political question is not whether the pinch will come but when.

There are some extremely humble people—the Townsendites for example—who think drouths are a retaliation of providence.

Monolog

This La Follette investigation of civil liberties is a one-man show but it has some very important stage hands whose names do not appear in the cast of characters.

So far as public appearances are concerned the investigating committee was originally composed of three members. Senator Murphy died. Senator Thomas announced he could not be here during August and September. This left Senator La Follette as a full committee in himself. He has no trouble rounding up a quorum. All committee actions are by unanimous consent.

What he is after is the labor situation particularly in steel. He will go into it next month and it is rather generally expected his unofficial consultants include no smaller personages than John L. Lewis and Mr. Roosevelt himself.

Hocus Locus

You may have heard that the empire of Ethiopia was conquered by Mussolini and made a province of Italy but that is not true. At least not officially. Cornelius Van Engert still remains in Addis Ababa as our official minister to Ethiopia. The empire has disappeared.

The state department however has no delusions that this diplomatic absurdity makes any difference. Practical requirements will eventually take Van Engert away from Addis Ababa. Then no successor will be appointed. This will leave a consular representation there which will constitute de facto recognition of Italy's conquest.

The wheels of diplomacy grind slowly.

OHIO FORESTS 100 YEARS AGO

It is hard to realize as one travels through Ohio's great cities many secondary municipalities and countless towns and villages that as late as 1831 the state was mostly covered by forests.

Quoting from the published diary of the Rev. Read who was sent by the Congregational Union of England to study conditions in America we have this fine compliment of Springfield:

"Springfield is a flourishing town built among the handsome hills that abound in this vicinity. It is one of the cleanest brightest and most inviting that I have seen. But all the habitations were as nothing compared with the forests. You drove through it unbroken for miles."

New York Notes

O. O. McIntyre's Diary of Fact, Fancy and Folks

NEW YORK, Aug. 26—With the disappearance of the old fashioned family entrance—we have today a disenchanting line up of ladies at the beer bar. Ladies feeling high, roguishly rouged baggy bunned and entirely too come hither.

They look a lot as tough to say: "Whatever it is you're going to say I can say it. We've heard it before. We know all the answers etc." Thus develops a class that not only muscles in on men lunchies but shouts them. And in this we have lost something. The blushes and self consciousness.

It would be apt just now to recapture the fun of the old huskin' bee with its red ear and all that. I am thinking of a church supper given on our lawn—a cotton of the creek place of mooing cows, oaken water buckets with gourd dippers and gnarled apple trees.

And I recall the fresh faced face of those buxom matrons who served such a sweet chicken dinner—flaky fried chicken and cocoanut cake with two fingered icing—and I'd like to trade somehow about two dozen girls of the beer bars for one blushing gal in blue gingham.

I met the late Tommy Meighan but once although we had exchanged several notes over a period. The meeting was at a Billy Seeman dinner and Meighan was already beginning to show the wear of the devastating malady that consumed him. His name was tied chiefly to "The Miracle Man" which made him Lon Chaney and Betty Compson. Betty Compson is recalled for the curl of her lips in that picture. She played a lady of the underworld. The story buzzed that she had gone through plenty of trouble trying to catch on in Hollywood and was drifted for that picture when in full blown pout at careering. And the director recognized the value of keeping her in that mood.

Meighan talked chiefly of George Ade his friend who he inveigled with overnight success into scenario writing. There was no one so great in literature friendship or understanding to him as Ade. Indeed one of the most devoted friendships I ever knew about. Meighan and Ade did a sort of reappearance later. That is Meighan played in a picture Ade wrote called "Back Home and Broke," a swell picket fence drama with [illegible] Ade knew how to scatter.

There is a snow white doorway on Gramercy Park West that is indeed a museum piece. It's worth a detour to see especially when dusk is sifting its silvery quietude over the maple. I have visited it many times and always there is a loiterer or so catching its poetic glint. A vein of Victorian still streaks Gramercy. During the present summer I have seen families dining in basement dining rooms by candle light and practicing an air of courtesy and leisurely manner attributed to the park's older and less hurried epoch.

Gramercy Park as it stands somehow recalls that era when wives feeling that their chamber of commerce husbands lacked color dashed off to the Continent for a turn with the hand kissers. The losers when American husbands were content with a hard day's work and a little porch rocking in the dusk.

JESSE OWENS RETURNS TO CLEVELAND IN TRIUMPH

MARION SCORES AT TRAPSHOOT

Two Shooters from Here Turn in Cards of 176 and 175 Out of 200

Marion was represented in the amateur clay target championship competition at Vandalia yesterday in the second day of trapshooting's world series. John H. Hinklin and Homer Hirth, both of Marion and members of the Marion Gun club, broke 176 and 175 targets out of 200, the Associated Press reported. Both were rated as class D contestants in the matches. William Waldock of Sandusky, well known here, broke 180 of 200 targets as a class B competitor.

Joe Heistand of Hillsboro repeated his performance of a year ago to win the men's championship, the dispatch reported. Just as in 1935 he broke 199 of 200 to tie with three others for the lead and then beat them in a shoot-off. Hale C. Jones of East Alton, Ill., finished second with 74 of 75 as Heistand cracked 75 consecutive targets in the shoot-off. Walter Beaver of Berwyn, Pa., the 1934 national champion and 1933 Grand American handicap victor, and C. C. Plummer of Flin Flon, Manitoba, each dropped out by missing one target of the first 25 extras. It was the third straight year that Heistand, Beaver and Jones tied for the crown, Heistand winning twice and Beaver once.

Mrs. Lela Hall of Strasburg, Mo., provided most of the fireworks for yesterday's show. She broke 196 of 200 clays from the 16-yard line, the greatest mark ever made in the battle for national feminine honors.

Class championships in six divisions and a state team race are up for decision at Vandalia today with the double target competition set for Thursday and the trapshooting climax furnished by the Grand American itself.

Activities of Condon, Hoffman, Jurors and Counsel on Both Sides Denounced

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, Aug. 26—Magazine articles by Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon, paid interviews by Hauptmann case jurors, the activities of Gov. Harold G. Hoffman and what it termed a publicity campaign by counsel on both sides received outspoken condemnation today before the American Bar association.

The report by a special committee on publicity in criminal trials was presented by Judge Oscar Hallam of St. Paul, former justice of the Minnesota supreme court. It denounced as fundamentally wrong newspaper and radio publicity at the Hauptmann trial.

Conduct of the trial by Judge Thomas W. Trenchard received the approbation of the committee, which added: "In his judicial conduct he was undisturbed by the whirl of excitement roundabout.

"There has been no suggestion of any impropriety in connection with the conduct of the jury during the trial. Like the court, they were apparently undisturbed by the excitement about them."

Iturbi Declares Hot Dogs Don't Mix With Music

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 26—The noted Spanish conductor and solo pianist, Jose Iturbi, adores hot dogs but contended today that they do not mix with symphony concerts.

This was one of Iturbi's answers in a dispute which last night after his first appearance as guest conductor of the Great Lakes Symphony orchestra led to cancellation of the remainder of his scheduled week of programs.

Iturbi held up a 45-minute network radio broadcast for nine minutes while the audience was combed for a pianist to play the score of "Impressions of Buenos Aires" by Jose Andre.

To the orchestra playing outdoors on the grounds of the Great Lakes exposition he said:

"I've just sent a telegram to New York asking to be released from this series. Understand—the trouble is not you. You played beautifully. But I can't stand these hot dogs—pop—whistles—and street cars."

Replied Rudolph Ringwall, director of the Great Lakes symphony after the concert, which also ended five minutes early:

Iturbi ate a hot dog himself Monday night while he listened to Walter Logan conduct the orchestra.

Returned Iturbi, located in a hotel dining room:

"Why, I ate three of them Monday night. But I finished them before going into the plaza."

POULSON DENIES SALE OF NEWSPAPER STOCK

editor of the paper. He added that he would be glad to reimburse Harrison for the $50 share when the present hearing is concluded.

Topper sought to learn why Gregg was discharged, but Poulson declined to answer.

Franklin county authorities announced meanwhile that the grand jury would investigate Harrison's complaints.

Harrison testified yesterday he bought advertising and a share of stock in the new paper, The Ohioan, as insurance against prosecution and later gave its director, Charles S. Gregg, $500 to quash a citation filed against him.

The board also summoned five other witnesses. James T. Keenan, a reporter who testified yesterday, said two of them were factory workmen.

In addition to Harrison and Keenan, others testifying were Morris Morgenstern, business manager of The Ohioan, and Earl H. Hanefeld, chairman of the state Democratic central committee, director of agriculture and treasurer of The Ohioan.

Hanefeld testified he merely received funds given him by Morgenstern, receipted for them and wrote checks.

"Beyond that I know nothing of the operation of the paper," he said.

Morgenstern denied knowledge of any exchange of money and stock between Gregg and Harrison, but Hanefeld said $50 from a share of stock in The Ohioan sold to Harrison came to him from Morgenstern and not from Gregg.

SPAIN'S REBELS OPEN 'BIG PUSH'

Army of 2,000 Moves On Irun While Madrid Links Alfonso to Rebellion

By The Associated Press

Rebel Spaniards began a powerful offensive against the government's key positions on the Bay of Biscay today while Socialist Madrid, through a confiscated letter, linked former King Alfonso with the Fascist revolt.

A rebel army of 2,000, with a tank, armored cars and big guns, struggled a mile closer to Irun in desperate fighting with three miles to go. Retreating government militiamen, blowing up roads, sent their wounded back to Irun. Government planes impeded the onslaught.

Predicts Victory

The Alfonso letter, seized in a Madrid house, was quoted as informing the rebels "Victory is ours" and "You can count on me for any assistance you may need."

It is no secret Alfonso favors the insurgents and despises the Socialist-Communist-anarchist bloc which seized power in Spain last February. He has, however, disavowed suggestions the rebellion was a monarchial movement.

Alfonso quit Spain on request five years ago.

A white flag fluttering from the long besieged rebel garrison in Toledo's famed Alcazar caused the wildest of excitement among loyalists.

However, after loyalist truce makers had been greeted by shots, the government concluded the 1,000 rebels were fighting among themselves within the alcazar and that only one faction, weary of the long siege, had hoisted the flag.

Fight Near Toledo

Fighting also was reported west of Toledo and government war planes moved again on the rebel cities of Oviedo, Zaragoza and Teruel.

Jose Giral Pereira, Spain's premier, exuded new confidence. He said the military situation gets better for us every day and declared only the rebels would cause international complications.

Grim products of the bloody war, executions went on. Four rebel officers died before a firing squad at Loyal Autonomous Barcelona. Already France and Great Britain have conferred on diplomatic proposals to stop the shooting of prisoners and other incidents of ferocity.

JULY TRADE BALANCE UNFAVORABLE TO U. S.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26—Reporting a contra-seasonal rise in imports during July, the commerce department said today that imports exceeded exports by $15,085,000 last month.

Exports for the month were listed at $178,324,000 compared with $184,909,000 in June and $173,220,000 in July, 1935.

With imports for last month placed at $193,409,000, an increase was shown over both the previous month and the same month a year ago, when the figures were $190,287,000 and $176,631,000, respectively.

The drop in export trade under June was listed at 4 per cent, with imports increasing 2 per cent. As a general rule, the department said, both exports and imports show a small seasonal decline in July.

Increase in exports over July, 1935, was attributed chiefly to larger shipments of [illegible]

DEATH TAKES THOMAS TYNER

Tailor Here for More Than 50 Years Dies After Short Illness

Thomas Tyner, 81, one of the city's oldest business men and a tailor here for more than 50 years, died of hardening of the arteries last night at 7:45 at his home at 309 South Main street. He was the oldest tailor in the city and maintained an active interest in his business until nine weeks ago when his illness confined him to his home. He had been in failing health for the last few months.

Mr. Tyner came to Marion in 1885 and was employed by James Graham, a tailor, in the city. In 1892 he established his own shop in what was known as the old Campbell building, now occupied by the Marion City Bank & Trust company. When the building was remodeled in 1930 Mr. Tyner moved his shop to its present location at 11[illegible] South Main street.

He was born June 6, 1855, at Rushville, Ind., to John and Anne Shields Tyner, natives of Queens county, Ireland. His marriage to Miss Adelaide D[illegible] of Marion took place Aug. 28, 1881. Her death occurred Jan. 28, 1896. Mr. Tyner was a member of St. Mary Catholic church, the Catholic Knights of Ohio and a charter member of Buckeye Aerie No. 337, F. O. Eagles.

Surviving are two children, Miss Regina Tyner at home and William D. Tyner of D[illegible], and one brother, Edward Tyner of Rushville, Ind.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 9 a. m. with a requiem mass at St. Mary Catholic church. Rev. Father Edward H. Summe, assistant pastor, will be the celebrant. Burial will be in St. Mary cemetery. Friends may call at the home at any time.

BUCYRUS CAR IN UNION CO. MISHAP

Wet Pavements Blamed for Two Automobile Accidents, One Near Mt. Victory

Rain which yesterday brought residents of the Marion district relief from the heat was blamed for two automobile accidents. Mrs. Ethel Rogers, 26, of Bucyrus and her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Orr of Cleveland, were slightly injured in a collision on route 4 about five miles north of Marysville at 4 p. m.

Mrs. Rogers, who was driving, suffered cuts on the right knee and right hand and Mrs. Orr was bruised about the head. The car, highway patrolmen said, skidded on the wet pavement and struck an automobile driven by Roy McCarty of Irwin, O. Mrs. Rogers had been following the other car and both were southbound.

The McCarty car was slightly damaged at the rear of the body, highway patrolmen reported, while the radiator, bumper and fenders of the other car were damaged. Mrs. Rogers' car was brought to the McDaniel Motor Co. garage here.

The other accident, also blamed on the wet pavement, occurred at 11:30 a. m. on route 31 three miles south of Mt. Victory, the patrolmen reported. Robert F. Johnson of Decatur, Ind., driving south, skidded into a parked automobile belonging to Lewis Cooley of near Mt. Victory. The parked car was near the Dallas Heenan farm residence where Mr. Cooley was visiting. Damage to the Cooley car was estimated at about $50 and the right rear fender of the other automobile was torn off, patrolmen said.

TAX PAYMENTS UP TO $345,189

With a total of $345,189.90 received in real estate tax payments to date, County Treasurer Homer D. Cole today called attention to the closing date for payments which is set for Tuesday, Sept. 1.

Approximately $27,000 in tax payments have been received since Friday, with good results being shown in the drive to collect delinquent taxes, Mr. Cole said.

Mr. Cole also reminded property owners who are paying delinquent taxes in installments under the Whittemore plan that payments are now due on about 700 properties. Delinquencies are being paid on a total of about 759 properties in this manner.

munity newspaper there as well as with Evans, illiam.

Markland's surrender left all 12 defendants in the Poole death case accounted for except Virgil F. Effinger, Lima, O., contractor, who is being sought as a fugitive, and Isaac (Peg-leg) White, former Detroit policeman.

A commission appointed to inquire into the sanity of Harvey Davis, Black Legion colonel accused of leading the group charged with kidnaping and killing Charles A. Poole last May 12, reported today that Davis is sane and able to stand trial.

The trial of Davis and 11 others in the Poole case is scheduled to start in circuit court next Monday.

A sentence of three to seven and one half years in a southern Michigan prison was imposed today in circuit court on Earl Angstadt, Black Legion member convicted of falsely impersonating Robert J. Penland, Ecorse steel worker. Angstadt was arraigned on a supplemental information as a second offender and pleaded guilty. He once served a prison term in Ohio for automobile theft.

Markland and Lupp were arraigned on the two death conspiracy charges and the criminal syndicalism indictment before Circuit Judge James L. Chenot and Robinson was arraigned on the syndicalism charge. All stood mute and their examinations were set for Aug. 31.

Lupp appeared with his attorney, F. O. Kugel, who was an attorney for Effinger at the extradition hearing in Columbus Tuesday.

"I'm glad to see you here," Judge Chenot said. "I see you disappeared from Columbus just after your client failed to show up."

"I don't know anything about Effinger's disappearance," Kugel said.

Turning to Bernard W. Cruse, attorney for Robinson, the court said:

"I'll hold you as hostage for your client. You know the power of this court to deal with you if your client fails to appear for trial."

DELUGE BREAKS HEAT GRIP HERE

Half Inch of Rain Falls Within 20 Minutes, Mercury Drops

Half an inch of rain fell in Marion yesterday afternoon in approximately 20 minutes time, bringing relief from the heat wave which gripped the city for a week.

Marion and vicinity suffered virtually no damage to property and crops but storms which accompanied the rain in other sections of the state left a trail of damage and were responsible for at least one death and several injured persons, the Associated Press reported.

Rains came to virtually every section of the state today and continued showers were forecast as from Indiana and westward reported as the heaviest in weeks swept eastward.

Marion's rain came about 4 p. m. when the thermometer was recording the day's maximum temperature of 84 degrees. The downpour washed the air and started the mercury downward to last night's minimum of 68 degrees and the coolest sleeping Marionites have had since a week ago Monday night. A year ago today the high reading was 81 and the minimum was 58.

Slight Damage

A few minor roof damages, none of which will exceed $10, were reported from scattered sections of the city.

Rain fell at Morral and Green Camp and in the vicinity of Waldo but in Waldo the sidewalks were barely dampened by a light shower.

A minor thunder and electrical storm accompanied Galion's heaviest downpour in weeks. An electric meter at the Earl Thomas home in Galion was destroyed by fire when it was struck by a lightning bolt.

Portsmouth reported 1.36 inches of rain fell during the night, according to the Associated Press.

Farm homes were fired and trees felled in some sections of the state. Roofs were blown off and near Columbus, where more than an inch of rain was recorded, a barn on the Hartman farms was leveled, killing several head of horses and swine. Electric communication lines suffered.

Keith Cousino, 17, of Temperance, Mich., was killed when lightning struck a silo under construction on the J. F. Downing farm near Lebanon.

At Brookville, near Dayton, Mrs. Edward Temple and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Sadilda Temple, were knocked unconscious by a bolt which also set fire to their home, and destroyed a barn with loss they estimated at between $4,000 and $5,000.

In Columbus, Orville Sayre, 42, jumped 40 feet from a scaffold which the wind tottered. He suffered a broken ankle.

INVALID AT ADA HONORED BY FRIENDS

Relatives from Marion and vicinity were among more than 60 who gathered Sunday at the home of William Van Atta near Ada to celebrate the birthday anniversaries of Mr. Van Atta and his nephew, Steve Adams of Toledo. Mr. Van Atta, a well known Hardin county farmer, has been suffering from paralysis for the last six years.

Mr. Van Atta is a brother of Mrs. Clarence Eberhart of Hane avenue, Mrs. D. J. Hogan of Cherry street and L. C. Van Atta of Prospect. Various groups from Ada and vicinity have made a practice of going to the Van Atta home and entertaining the invalid and last Friday a group of 20 members of the Dola Girls' 4-H club, gave a musical entertainment at his bedside.

Among those present at the Sunday party were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Eberhart, Mrs. D. J. Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Roecker and daughter, Mrs. Hugh Greer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cook and family and Aden Goff of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Eberhart and family of Kenton, Mr. and Mrs. John Epley and family of Dola, Cheerey Radebaugh and Emery McElroy of Ada, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Van Atta of Prospect.

DIXIE SENATORS WIN AT POLLS

Pat Harrison of Mississippi and James Byrnes of South Carolina Retain Seats

TOWNSENDITES PLACE 11

But Sheridan Downey, Organization Counsel, Loses Race for Congressional Post.

By The Associated Press

The return of two new deal stalwarts to the senate was assured today on the basis of virtually complete returns from Mississippi and South Carolina Democratic primaries.

Sen. Pat Harrison had a lead of 67,000 votes over Sennett Conner, former Mississippi governor, who was aided by Sen. Theodore Bilbo in a bitterly fought struggle for the nomination. With all but 172 of the state's 1,650 districts reported, Harrison's vote totaled 152,650 to Conner's 86,850. Conner also had pledged support to President Roosevelt.

In South Carolina Sen. James F. Byrnes won a 7 to 1 victory over Thomas P. Stoney and Col. William C. Harllee, both of whom had criticized the new deal. The vote in 1,381 of the 1,474 districts: Byrnes 103,381, Stoney 15,750, Harllee 9,830.

Mean Reelection

The nominations of both Harrison and Byrnes are the equivalent of reelection in Mississippi and South Carolina. Headquarters of the [illegible] said President Roosevelt had communicated with them to express his pleasure.

In California the Townsendites, cutting across party lines, appeared on the basis of early returns to have been successful in placing indorsed candidates in 11 of the 20 districts for the November election.

Dr. F. E. Townsend's legal counsel, Sheridan Downey, conceded defeat in his effort to wrest the Third district Democratic nomination from Rep. Frank H. Buck.

Deeply Disappointed

"Of course I am deeply disappointed, not chiefly because of my personal loss but because of the refusal of the voters to accept the economic principles which I espouse," said Downey after conceding defeat.

Rep. John S. McGroarty, who introduced the original Townsend legislation in congress and then broke with the plan's founder, was far ahead for the Democratic nomination in the 11th district.

For the Republican nomination in the same district, however, both McGroarty and the Townsend choice, A. J. Stewart, trailed Carl Hinshaw, Pasadena businessman.

Rep. John H. Hoeppel, recently convicted of conspiracy to sell a West Point appointment, dropped to third place among 10 candidates seeking the 12th district Democratic nomination in returns from 190 of 488 precincts.

ROOSEVELT PONDERS WORLD PEACE PARLEY

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Aug. 26—The New York Times reported today that President Roosevelt is giving serious consideration, if he is reelected, to inviting heads of several nations to confer on means of insuring world peace.

If the proposal is carried out, the paper said, Mr. Roosevelt would ask King Edward VIII, Joseph Stalin, Benito Mussolini, Adolf Hitler, President LeBrun of France, representatives of Japan and China and a few others to meet with him at a convenient site.

Mr. Roosevelt has told his friends, the paper said, that in event of his reelection, he believes "he will be in the best position any American President has ever been to promote the cause of world peace."

The causes of war and prospects of disarmament would be discussed, the article continued, with the conferees personally agreeing to use their influence to prevent war in any part of the world.

"Mr. Roosevelt feels that even if the conference amounted to no more than a gesture it would be a powerful one and certain to delay war if not to avert it for a much longer period," the Times said.

Make Plans to Welcome Madge's Uncle Who Is to Impersonate Her Father in Home

DICKY LOST no time in [illegible] at the [illegible] Harry Underwood had given him

[illegible] better had [illegible] until [illegible] before we [illegible]

[illegible] Katie and Lillian [illegible] an apprehensive [illegible] doorway and I [illegible] they were fearing Mother Graham had sold [illegible] of [illegible] the secret of the [illegible] of my father by [illegible] about whom I [illegible] indeed of whom I [illegible] the day of my [illegible] upon his daughter [illegible] we had [illegible] expected [illegible] upon [illegible] had named

Katie and Jim were [illegible] secret of the [illegible] Mother Graham [illegible] be ignorant of [illegible] for her to discover [illegible] been deceiving her

I did not need words [illegible] my friend [illegible] to tell me [illegible] temporarily at [illegible] living room and [illegible] make her [illegible] us at any second

Edging close to Dicky I pulled his sleeve as [illegible] a child to attract his attention and spoke from the side of my mouth in the fashion taught me long ago by Lillian when I was her humble admiring assistant in secret service work

Your mother doesn't know that Katie and Jim know the secret of the impersonation She thinks that they believe father himself is coming back

Dicky answered in the same cryptic fashion

I get you he said Don't forget when Uncle comes to address him as father You probably will have to put your arms around his neck and kiss him to carry out the farce Pass the word to Lil and Katie and I'll spill the dirt to Harry

Dreads Embrace

His voice even in its monotone expressed the distaste which he knew I shared for my staging a show of filial affection to an old man of whose existence I never had dreamed until a few days be[illegible]

[illegible] I [illegible] message to keep mother [illegible] when [illegible] I also [illegible] to [illegible] we come [illegible] back to Lillian and

[illegible] I [illegible] When [illegible] comes remember always [illegible] as if he were my [illegible] as if he were a [illegible] as if you had been [illegible] him every day

[illegible] nose traveled upward [illegible] I know nodings— [illegible] Lillian said [illegible] savagely from the side of [illegible] mouth and I knew that her [illegible] had heard something the rest of us had not

The next second footsteps were audible in the hallway outside and [illegible] mother in law appeared in the doorway [illegible] her trailing gown of black crepe evidently donned in special honor of this occasion which patently held an especial thrill for her melodramatic soul

Well Margaret she said kissing my cheek It is good to see you back again

But her tone was coldly polite and held the stiffness of her more cantankerous moods Something had happened to disturb her I looked toward Katie involuntarily but Lillian shook her head unseen by my mother in law nothing [illegible] though them

He [illegible] That's a recital of hen-pecked husband and is no [illegible] about it He got up and went to the book shelves Mind if I look?

Of course not Why should I?

I don't know Looking at people's books is sort of like looking at their minds—unless the people are like some of my friends who cleaned out the parental shelves when they married just to decorate the living room Say this is lovely He had set down his glass and taken out the copy of South Wind I haven't seen this edition

The book brought Denis Ford harmlessly back to Capri he had written who deserves the world with a fence Well she hadn't found it and never would this friendly hour with Blake was as close to it as she was likely to come She could rest with Blake because they were united in their aloneness

It's lovely isn't it? she said

He turned and looked at her one eyebrow lifted smiling quizzically You mustn't blame that on the book he said

She stared at him for a moment and then laughed It's all right to read my books but I'll be hanged if I want you reading my mind She got up abruptly

I'm going to set out the lunch as our cook says

To save space she served the plates in the kitchen and Blake carried them in.

I never saw such a girl he protested Where the devil did you learn to cook?

I can't—much I'm an exponent of Milly's theory She says if you can broil steak and make cream sauce you can always get by

It sounds logical Some night I'll bring a steak over and see how well you do that

He ate ravenously hardly stopping to talk When they had cleared the table to make room for the Camembert and liquers he gave a sigh of pleasure The peace in his soul had deepened with the appeasement of an unaccustomed physical hunger

Tell me about your family he begged I have an idea they're a [illegible]

[illegible] She told him [illegible] of [illegible] and beauty of Milly's [illegible] sweetness and courage And [illegible] of Evan who had been every [illegible]

Blake's eyes were bright [illegible] can imagine anything better than a family like that I was an only child and [illegible] pale [illegible] dead

He added abruptly I wish some of your family would come over here [illegible] I could see them

They probably will when it's cooler I would [illegible] with an apartment on them [illegible] the [illegible]

The thought occurred to both of them that he could hardly make the acquaintance of her family if he found [illegible] did come You couldn't explain that sort of relationship nor could you explain away Irma And in the fall they were [illegible] Irma would be back to replenish her wardrobe for Florida

She pushed her chair back Let's get this table out of the way I don't like [illegible] and view the remains

He stood up I'm washing the dishes

The devil you are

He led her to the couch and pushed her down his hand strong and not too gentle on her shoulders Sit down darn you

In the end they compromised and she washed them while he dried them and put them away Then they came back and sat down and had another liqueur

Read the paper a while Carol ordered The [illegible] letter here from Jill and I want to see what's in it

Why on earth didn't you say so? The dinner could surely have waited that long

I didn't matter

She wondered afterward if she could have been psychic about the letter If she could have postponed it deliberately in order to hold as long as possible an hour of contentment

Jill detailed the family news first conscientiously

And finally I don't suppose after our talk Christmas that you'll be surprised at this Don and I are going to be married Not till spring but I wanted you to know it as soon as I'd made up my mind

She dropped the letter and stared straight in front of her Don and Jill Jill who was nothing but a baby was going to marry Don A Don who just a year ago had been shaken and desolate because he couldn't marry her

Blake abandoned the pretense of reading What is it Carol? There was concern in his quiet voice

Jill's going to be married

She tried to laugh but the laugh caught in her throat I knew it was coming but I hoped it wouldn't happen quite yet

Why? He was looking steadily at her wondering perhaps why she didn't react as most women did to the news of an imminent wedding

Because she seems such a child Of course she's twenty two

Blake she remembered suddenly had been twenty two when he married Irma

He said expressionlessly That's pretty young but not too young I guess—for a girl

She isn't really too young Carol admitted honestly And she always knows exactly what she wants and goes after it She'll be happy I think

Then it sounds like good news to me

It is for Jill She met his look and confessed My regrets are entirely selfish As long as she and Pat were at home my absence didn't make such a gap Now Milly will be more alone

His mouth twisted You've got a conscience like I have—God help us both

He laid his hand on hers and she noticed for the first time how good his hands were thin and straight, with broad palms and long sensitive fingers She turned her own hand and gripped his

Well He probably won't We'll have to help ourselves—if we can

He stood up and pulled her to her feet Come on and let's drive a while It'll cool us off Don't bother with a hat He shrugged into his coat and went to open the door for her She found the key and handed it to him

Put this in your pocket I don't want to carry a bag

He took the key and followed her with unsmiling eyes as she stepped past him into the hall The thought pricked his mind that she ought not to be leading this lone wolf existence she ought to be the one who was marrying and not her kid sister

And in the same instant he knew that he had no business being so glad she wasn't.

They drove for an hour and let the warm wind brush their faces and rumple their hair When they had stopped again at the Sherwood she made herself look at him and smile He sat still his face a blur in the dark

Don't bother to come in with me I've been nicer than I can tell you

He stirred It's been the best evening I've ever had he said soberly and gathered himself together Oh here's your key

He held it out carefully and she took it without touching his fingers The car moved reluctantly away in the night.

"And that," she said finally, under her breath will have to be all of that."

But the next morning when Blake said in his usual pleasant voice "There's a new men's tailoring shop opening next month—very swank. They want an announcement," she knew she had been a conceited, romantic fool. There was no trace of self-consciousness in his voice or his manner

Irma's return, tomorrow, places Blake in the familiar straight-jacket.

The poetic and sentimental legend that birds sleep with their heads under their wings is not true.

Emergency Schools Enroll Hundreds in Marion Co.

A varied program of study courses interests the hundreds of adults enrolled in the federal emergency schools program in Marion county which will observe the second anniversary of its inauguration within a few months Established under the FERA the school was transferred to the WPA program on Jan 2 this year continuing along practically the same lines of administration Marion is now one of 10 counties which make up District No 9 of which Harold H Haylor of Mansfield is district director

Carl L Lister is supervisor of the schools in the county and D T Mills county superintendent of schools is chairman of the emergency schools council Preparations are going forward to carry out a program on the same lines under the auspices of the PWA.

Federal Project

The schools which are a part of the Ohio emergency schools administration is a federal project for adult education and underprivileged children of nursery school age and was primarily set up to give employment to competent unemployed teachers The schools are financed through the education of federal earmarked funds for educational purposes

The classes are open to any person 16 years of age or above who is not enrolled in public or parochial schools All necessary school supplies are furnished to students free and no charge is made for registration and participation in the classes

Peak enrollment for the year was in July when 522 people were affiliated with the various classes In numerous instances persons taking courses in the schools have procured positions in private industry and professions This is especially true of persons who have taken work in the electrical course and for women the home hygiene classes Mr Lister states

Mrs. Violet Curtice is supervisor of the Women's and professional projects and her assistant is John G Olmstead Both have their headquarters at Mansfield.

Classes for Women

Major classes of particular interest to women are the sewing center and the home hygiene. The former is in charge of Mrs. Jennie Crane and the latter is under the direction of Mrs Ruth Johnson R. N More than 100 women find employment at the sewing center and about an equal number have enrolled throughout the six weeks' courses in home hygiene

The following corps of instructors are in charge of the various courses Mrs. Hulda Cole, lip-reading for the hard of hearing; Thomas Finch, instructor in string instruments James M Fisher classes in safety traffic and last winter conducted a course in Bible study C K Harris mechanical and architectural drawing I F Lewis practical electricity including construction work H C Roest classes in mathematics family budgeting and domestic finances French and English Howard Tenant radio television and sound nature study and field work Jesse Williams general photography commercial and portrait work Miss Isabelle Savage piano harmony and music appreciation Miss Gwendolyn Kannel assistant to Mr Roest and former assistant to dietician at the nursery school Miss Gladys Kern is office secretary to Mr Lister

EXTRA LEVIES SEEN IN COUNTY

Will Be Necessary To Maintain Operations, Survey Indicates

If Marion county schools operate on the anticipated budgets for 1936-37 approximately $55,000 must be raised by special levies to meet the budget according to a survey made late last week

Budgets have not been filed as yet County Auditor Harry V Myers said Saturday but school officials estimated that the combined budgets of the 13 school districts excluding Marion township which is in court dispute over redistricting will total approximately $271,600

The anticipated total amount which the schools will receive through the school foundation program will be about $149,430 leaving $122,100 of which not more than $66,600 will be raised by taxes in the various school districts

Already some of the Marion county schools are contemplating voting on extra levies either by special or general election County Supt D T Mills said Several districts voted extra millage last year and will not be affected the coming school year

Commenting on the school foundation program which will provide a proportionate share of operating funds to schools which meet the foundation requirements Mr Mills said

The foundation program is too meager for the average rural school It was intended to be a foundation and the local districts were to contribute towards building up a better program than the foundation program originally provided

The public in general felt the foundation program was intended to be a complete program and this has developed a shortage of funds in a number of school districts

Personally I can see no way out if they wish to have a well rounded program with efficient teachers than to supplement the foundation law with extra millage

Officials in Columbus tell us that the money as provided in the program will be provided in full until January but that from that time on it is very doubtful whether there will be any funds available for the February distribution

Appendix Deaths

APPENDICITIS, or inflammation of the appendix was once a dreaded disease In [illegible] it is only within recent years that the operation has been so perfected that the disease is no longer feared [illegible] the danger of appendicitis still exists and [illegible] causes an unnecessarily large toll of lives This menace [illegible] the rapid strides of modern surgery

Unfortunately many persons ignore the definite and positive signs of appendicitis They [illegible] make the mistake of resorting to self-medication by taking castor oil or some other laxative Others avoid consulting the doctor because they fear that he will [illegible] an emergency operation

Peritonitis Serious

Little do they realize that neglect and delay of a needed operation is far more dangerous than the actual operation itself In the hands of a competent surgeon the operation is almost trivial The annual mortality can be traced to delay in operation with rupture of the appendix That is what happened to my friend [illegible]

If the appendix ruptures the germs [illegible] the peritoneum [illegible] the abdominal cavity When this happens the membrane becomes inflamed producing what is called peritonitis which is a serious and possibly fatal condition Of course under such unfortunate circumstances operation is absolutely imperative but recovery is not always assured in spite of the operation

When it is known that the appendix is diseased it should be removed This is the only way to give protection against the development of peritonitis and other dreaded complications Sudden and severe abdominal pain should always be considered as suspicious of a possible attack of appendicitis

Laxatives Unwise

Above all let me warn you against taking a laxative for the relief of abdominal pain It is a known fact that when the appendix is inflamed and then the intestine is stimulated with a cathartic the appendix is further irritated In such event it is liable to burst This menace must be avoided if possible in order to guard against peritonitis

If you have persistent abdominal pain or repeated attacks of indigestion, I cannot overstate the importance of consulting with a doctor When abdominal pain exists an examination is in order Above all if the doctors advise operation do not delay

In a recent editorial in the Journal of the American Medical association a plea was made to all physicians of the country to help reduce the present mortality rate from appendicitis This can only be accomplished by education of the public

County Schools Prepare To Open for New Term

Individual Boards To Determine Whether Beginning Will Be Labor Day or Following Tuesday

Marion county schools are prepared for the opening of the 1936-37 school year next month although the [illegible] question of the future of the county's six one room schools has not been decided and the outcome probably will not be settled until next week.

The Marion township board of education which has filed an injunction suit in court in an attempt to prevent the county board and other defendants from carrying out the [illegible] order [illegible] which would split the Marion township district among other school districts has employed its teachers. [illegible] county board [illegible] have until Sept 5 to file their answer or other counter proceedings.

The six schools affected in the redistricting program which has brought on the court action are Linn, Lawrence, Clark, Campbell, Peber and Smeltzer.

County school officials stated that undoubtedly the children in Marion township will be in school on the opening day either in the one room buildings or in the schools in the districts proposed in the redistricting program.

Many New Teachers

More than 30 new teachers supervisors and superintendents will be on hand to greet the county school pupils on the opening days Sept 7 and 8 the largest group of newcomers in the county system in several years.

It will be left to the individual boards to decide whether school opens on Labor day Sept 7 or the following day Supt D T Mills said.

Marriage among the women teachers and employment in other counties were the major factors in the resignations which reached almost wholesale proportions last spring and this summer.

Pleasant township and Martel schools will have new superintendents and there will be new Smith Hughes vocational agriculture teachers at the Waldo Green Camp and Agosta schools.

Wayne Galladay who has been principal of the Roundhead O school for two years will succeed Harley Rodock who was superintendent at the Martel school for 10 years. Mr Rodock will be superintendent of the Valley City school in Medina county.

R A Moore who had the longest service record of any teacher in the county system will be succeeded as superintendent of the Pleasant Township school by Edwin F Banning who was a high school teacher at the school last year.

Both Mr Banning and Mr Galladay are Ohio State university graduates.

Thomas K Bell of Columbus and Byron Good both Ohio State university graduates have been hired to fill Smith Hughes vacancies at Waldo Green Camp and Agosta.

Succeeds Levi Lukens

Mr Good succeeds Levi Lukens as vocational agriculture instructor at Waldo. Mr Lukens is now supervisor of vocational agriculture in the Fayette school in Fulton county. A A Wood Smith Hughes teacher at the Green Camp and Agosta schools resigned his position and will be succeeded by Mr Bell. Mr Wood's plans for the future have not been announced.

The number of new faculty members assigned each of the schools is as follows: LaRue three, Agosta two, Morral three, Kirkpatrick two, Martel four, Caledonia two, Claridon one, Grand Prairie one, Montgomery four, Pleasant three, Prospect one, Waldo four, Marion township five.

Last week four new music supervisors were hired to fill vacancies left [illegible] resignations and to bring the number of supervisors up to the usual five. UNLOCKING WEDLOCK

Love is that paradoxical emotion which makes a woman prefer to be miserable with one man rather than to be happy with another.

Many a woman suspects that the reason her husband is not a bigger business success is that he is always ready to sidestep Opportunity in order to shake hands with Temptation.

If a woman could only take an X-ray of her marital troubles as she does of a bothersome tooth and find out just what is at the root of it all she would always decide to try treatment instead of a divorce.

In fact a normal woman will try anything from facial surgery to faith cure to hold onto any fairly good tooth—or any fairly good husband.

When love dies a woman closes the door of her heart and locks it in where she can suffer over it but a man closes the door of his heart and locks it out where he can forget it.

It's a good thing that society is so shallow — or many of those people who are floating around in it would be drowned.

A man usually puts his emotions in cold storage along with his wedding coat. But a woman keeps hers alive and aching by going to the movies and getting her thrills and torments vicariously.

Next to a broken ankle his first love affair is probably the most acutely painful thing in a man's life. That's why he never forgets the girl — nor forgives her if she marries him.

A problem in mathematics: Two weeks of leisure subtracted from business multiplied by hotel bills divided by packing and travel plus lack of sleep and a bad case of sunburn equals—vacation.

Add Junior High Football To Marion Sports Program

HARDING HIGH COACH ANNOUNCES PLAN TO DEVELOP GRID TALENT

Athletic Activities in Marion Schools Next Term Outlined by Coaches

Marion's junior high schools will have football teams during the coming season, it was announced today as officials connected with the sports program of the city schools [illegible] their plans for the year.

Under a program [illegible] by Carl Cramer, Harding High varsity football coach, each of the city's three junior high schools will have a fully equipped team this season.

At the same time Dewey N. Bohver, basketball coach, announced tentative plans for the basketball season later in the year. He will start a green team this year having lost all of last season's varsity cagers by graduation.

In addition to junior high football the gridiron wars will be carried out along two other fronts—the varsity squad in the N C O league and the Harding High reserves playing a series of games in this district.

Cramer will remain at the helm of the varsity while Bill Williams, assistant basketball coach, will have charge of the reserves. First practice sessions will be held next Tuesday, Sept 1.

The junior high school teams will have their own coaches—drawn from the faculty at each school—and will play an inter-school schedule opening Oct 1 and closing Nov 5.

Develops Varsity Material

Cramer hailed the junior high school football program as the most important of all factors bearing on the development of material for varsity squads. It has been used in many other cities for years with remarkable results, Cramer pointed out.

Boys in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades will be eligible for the teams although none may play without permission both from the parents and from a physician, Cramer explained. Players also must have passing grades in at least three subjects to be eligible.

J. Eugene Auld will coach the Vernon Heights team, Chet Hannahs the Edison team and Howard Hoffman will direct Central Junior's squad. Hoffman was one of Coach Cramer's assistants with the varsity last year but will devote himself to Central's destinies this season. Hannahs had coaching experience in southern Ohio before coming to Marion.

Coach Cramer has asked that each junior high boy who is able to furnish his own football equipment should do so in order that more of the boys not able to buy equipment may use the equipment furnished by the schools.

Each junior high team will have a practice field at its own school and will begin practice sessions Sept 11, Cramer said. Games will be played on Thursday afternoons after school.

Junior High Schedule

The game schedule follows:

Oct 1 — Edison vs Vernon Heights; Oct 8—Central vs Edison; Oct 15—Central vs Vernon; Oct 22—Edison vs Vernon; Oct 29—Edison vs Central and Nov 5—Central vs Vernon.

Cramer was unable to evaluate Harding High's prospects for the coming season inasmuch as no spring practice was held last year, leaving the squad virtually idle since last fall.

The coach did however remark about a better spirit and an increasing air of cooperation among the boys. "They seem to be determined to do something about winning games this year," he declared.

Graduation took a heavy toll from last season's team, 16 lettermen receiving their diplomas. Only three lettermen will be back this year, Forest Sharrock, captain and left end, and Joe Moore, left tackle, both seniors, and Clayton Harper, right end, a junior.

Coach Cramer said he has found a good deal of material in the junior class although most of the boys didn't see much action as sophomores last season.

Varsity Grid Schedule

The varsity schedule follows:

Sept 19—Delaware there; Sept 26—Mt Gilead here; Oct 3—Mansfield there; Oct 10—Galion here; Oct 17—Findlay here; Oct 24—Ashland here; Oct 31—Shelby here; Nov 6—Bucyrus (night game) there; Nov 11—Mt Vernon there.

The varsity and reserves will both use the stadium practice field, each using a separate part of the field. Each squad also will have its own dressing room facilities for the first time.

Cramer will be without assistants in directing the varsity this year with Hoffman coaching Central and Williams in charge of the reserves. Williams served as varsity line coach last season but Cramer will have to take over that duty this season as well as all other phases of the coaching job.

Reserve Program

The schedule for the reserve team follows:

Sept 19—Delaware here; Sept 26—Mansfield here; Oct 3—at Mansfield; Oct 17—Findlay here; Nov 14—at Mt Vernon.

Williams said another game may be scheduled following the Oct 17 game with Findlay.

When the thud of the cleated shoes on the gridiron becomes an echo, Harding High school athletes will turn their activity to the basketball court. Harding High school varsity and junior varsity, St Mary Parochial High school and junior high school teams will share the limelight in the winter sports program.

Dewey N. Bohver, director of athletics at Harding, will coach the varsity club which although hampered by the graduation of every regular member last season may develop potentialities that will surprise followers of the team. The President court squad entered in the North Central Ohio league will open its conference season Dec 18 while several non-league contests will probably be played before that date.

Junior varsity players will be under the tutelage of Bill Williams who handled the jayvees' destinies last season. The team will follow a schedule almost as extensive as the varsity club, being entered in the N C O junior varsity race. Players who last year were members of court teams of the junior high schools and who will be attending Harding High school this season make it difficult to measure the pre-season strength of the team.

St Mary Plans Cage Program

St Mary Parochial High school will again put a team on the hardwood courts. Led by Coach Bob Kelly the team will go through a schedule including about 16 games. Although the school has not yet been entered in any conference, its basketball representatives plan to meet other outstanding teams from this district.

Culminating the season for the Harding High varsity and the St Mary team will be the tournaments to be held late in March. Harding goes direct to the district competition at Delaware while St Mary plays in the class B sectional event at Westerville.

Junior high teams will play on a home-and-home basis with the three city squads matched against each other. J. Eugene Auld will direct the Vernon Heights team, Chet Hannahs the Edison team and Howard Hoffman the Central Junior squad. The teams will meet on the Edison and Vernon Heights courts with Central's home games being played at the Y M C A.

Except for the N C O schedule in which both the Harding varsity and reserves participate, the other teams have not yet arranged schedules for the 1936-37 season. The varsity and jayvees will play two games on each N C O meeting with the two teams representing each school. The conference schedule follows: Dec 18—at Mt Vernon; Jan 1—Mansfield here; Jan 8—at Bucyrus; Jan 15—Ashland here; Jan 19—at Galion; Jan 29—Shelby here; Feb 5—Mt Vernon here; Feb 9—at Mansfield; Feb 12—Bucyrus here; Feb 19—at Ashland; Feb 23—Galion here.

Lions, Collegiate All-Stars Clash Sept. 1

Riley Smith
Soldiers Field
Glenn Presnell
Jay Berwanger

By MAURICE MERRIFIELD
International Illustrated News Writer

CHICAGO — When the Detroit Lions meet the collegiate All Americans at Chicago's Soldiers Field the night of Sept 1 it will be a test of two different football systems as well as a game which will match youth and power against experience and teamwork.

Bernie Bierman's famed Minnesota style of football emphasizes the offense. It is a system little used in professional football but one which has proven its worth in the past two seasons when one considers the enviable record of the Gophers. Most of the professional teams use a combination of the Warner and Notre Dame systems. While their offense is smooth and formidable they rely on fewer plays and stress an airtight defense which keeps down most of the scores in the pro league.

Collegians Offense Strong

Many are of the opinion that the College All Star team which swings into action Sept 1 is the greatest ever assembled on any gridiron. In watching their workouts observers have been impressed with their tremendous power, speed and versatility.

In the backfield are such stars as Sheldon Beise of Minnesota, Jay Berwanger, Chicago, Riley Smith, Alabama and Bill Shakespeare of Notre Dame.

Stacked against these in the backfield of the Detroit Lions are such able veterans as Glenn Presnell, Ace Gutowsky, Ernie Caddell and Dutch Clark. They have a tricky forward passing attack and a bewildering offense which consists of a dozen effective plays starting from practically the same formation, a setup which will make it difficult for the collegians to analyze and anticipate the direction of their attack.

The big problem which Head Coach Bierman and his assistants, Bo McMillin of Indiana and Elmer Layden of Notre Dame must work out before the starting whistle is to work out a smoothly effective combination which will function as a team and not as a group of 11 men. Bierman is confident that the aggregation will whip into a smooth combination and not without reason predicts that the 1936 College All Stars will prove the greatest team ever to take the field when they line up the night of Sept 1.

Both Lines Powerful

In considering the offensive power of the teams it is unfair to overlook the magnificent lines which will represent both the pros and collegians. In the starting lineup for the collegians, Keith Topping of Stanford and Wayne Millner of Notre Dame will be at the ends, Dick Smith of Minnesota and Truman Spain of Southern Methodist at tackles, Vernon Oech of Minnesota and Paul Tangora of Northwestern at guards and Ohio's Gomer Smith at center.

Neither of the previous two games in the series between the pros and the Collegian All Stars has conclusively proved the superiority of either outfit. One game was a scoreless tie and the other was won by the professionals by the unusual score of 5 to 0.

GIANTS TAKE LEAD BY DEFEATING REDS; CLEVELAND LOSES, 5-3

Cards Lose Top Spot in National Loop as Bees Trim Them Twice

By The Associated Press

Bill Terry's [illegible] Giants [illegible] have convinced [illegible] the rest of the National league [illegible] the [illegible] boys as [illegible] they aren't kidding [illegible] their [illegible] toward the pennant.

Riding a 1½ game lead in first place over the crippled Cardinals, the Giants went down in the books today as a [illegible] to 6 shot to come through in the flag chase—the first time this season Betting Commissioner Jack Doyle has put them on the short end of the odds.

The gas house gang dropped to second place through a double defeat at the hands of the Boston Bees, sang to 7-5 odds, while the champion Cubs became no better than 3½ to 1.

A tight 6-5 victory over the Cincinnati Reds in the opener of their western invasion yesterday not only made short shots of the Giants but gave them the top lead as well.

The Cards ran into a streak of tough luck and a stinging crew of Bees at the same time and bowed out of the lead in both ends of a double bill, 20-3 and 5-4.

Frankie Frisch and Pepper Martin went on the sidelines with injuries before the twin bill started. Terry Moore joined them with a hurt ankle during the first game. And finally all hope for the return of Paul Dean with his arm healed ended as the Daffy member of the Dean clan went on the voluntary retired list in order to rest up down on the farm.

In the American league the Yankees slugged St Louis Brown pitching for 22 hits and a 13-1 triumph as Lefty Gomez won his first game since July 4 and Joe DiMaggio hammered his 23rd homer.

The second place Cleveland Indians fell 5-3 before the Senators and Buck Newsom's six hit pitching to boost the Yankee lead to 12½ games.

Schoolboy Rowe posted a two-hitter against the Red Sox to give the Tigers a 5-0 win and the Athletics won a free-slugging 13-11 triumph over the White Sox.

Casey Stengel's daffy Dodgers with Max Butcher pitching three-hit ball trounced the Pirates 11-1 in a game cut short by rain. The Cubs and Phillies were rained out.

NIGHT SOFTBALL GAME POSTPONED

Rain last night halted the Axe Funeral Home-Moores and Ross game set as a floodlight contest at Lincoln park. The game, one of the two remaining on the Axe team's schedule, both of which must be won for the club to gain the All Star League pennant, has been set for Thursday night of this week.

Push Work To Complete New Grid Stadium

Construction of [illegible] dressing rooms, showers and [illegible] at the new high school athletic stadium on President [illegible] is being pushed forward [illegible] by WPA workers.

The structure to enclose these rooms in the under part of the stadium is scheduled to be finished around Sept 8. The installation of equipment will require additional time.

When this phase of the stadium project has been finished two dressing rooms equipped with shower and facilities for 30 boys in each will be provided along with public toilets.

This work will complete the stadium project except for grading around the athletic field.

It is expected the dressing rooms and showers will be available for use during most of the fall football season. During the week the Harding squad will use both rooms. On days when games are played one room will be available for each team.

Water for the showers and toilets will be furnished by a well drilled at the athletic field last year.

The program for the affair here will begin at 10:30 a. m. with trial runs while the actual competition is set to start at 1:30 o'clock. Nine events—two races each for class A, B, C and F boats and one open event—will be held.

The ninth and final race will be an open division for all Marion county drivers for local championship laurels. P. E. Hughes of near Marion, Pat Dwyer of 505 Silver street, Aden Harrold of 131 Campbell street, Jack Friley of near Marion and Stanley Berry of Prospect are among the drivers who are expected to race for the county championship in the final competition.

The drivers entered in the county championship event will be handicapped with what is known as a squadron start with class B boats in the front line followed by Jack Friley's class F craft and Aden Harrold's class C boat. Distance for the championship affair will be over the same three-mile course as the other competition.

Many nationally prominent drivers are expected here because of the fact that Marion's regatta is a convenient stop-over from the Marietta competition. Tony Venzin of Indianapolis, last year winner of both class C events; Art Werner, also of Indianapolis, who last year copped the class A races, and Carl Stoner, North Baltimore, O., high school student who took first honors in the second class A race in 1935, are among the outstanding drivers who are expected here.

Detroit Team To Play Here Friday Night

The Joe Louis Brown Bombers of Detroit, Mich., colored aces of softball and baseball, will meet Marion Friday night for a doubleheader exhibition program at Lincoln park. The performance is being sponsored by the Marion softball commission and the Marion Steam Shovel Athletic association baseball club with the proceeds to be added to the stadium benefit funds.

The Detroit team, directed by Charles [illegible], professional colored baseball pitcher and a former member of the Baltimore Black Sox club, will face the M. S. S. baseball club in a regulation game starting at 6 o'clock. Immediately following the baseball game the Bombers will oppose an outstanding city softball team to be named later in a contest under the floodlights.

Marion [illegible], L. [illegible] Heller and Elmer Shaw of the softball commission and E. V. Shoup and Robert Van Scoy, representing the Shovel team, met at the Y. M. C. A. last night and completed final plans for the exhibition games.

The Brown Bombers are en route to southern Ohio and have booked the game here to fill an open date on the tour of this section. Using identical line-ups, the club meets opponents in either baseball or softball and on exhibitions makes it a twin bill by playing both games.

The team has a record of 51 games won and three lost in the baseball division of its activity and has an enviable record of softball victories. One of the outstanding stars of the aggregation is Cannonball Johnson, who last year won 36 of 40 softball contests and is undefeated thus far this season. Johnson is capable of hurling either right or left handed and does double mound duty for the Bombers.

HAUSER'S BAT HELPS MILLERS SCORE 5-2 WIN OVER ST. PAUL

Milwaukee Wins from Kansas City, Indianapolis Loses to Louisville

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Aug 26—Joe Hauser's aging and injury harried legs can't carry him about as they used to, but there is still dynamite left in the former American association home run champion's bat.

Hauser, [illegible] of the [illegible] 69 home runs in 1933, [illegible] knees slowed him down and almost ended his baseball career a couple of times since. Manager Donie Bush of the Minneapolis Millers used Hauser largely as a pinch hitter early in the season but since mid-season the big first baseman has filled in at first as a regular because of his batting eye.

The veteran is hitting [illegible] .[illegible]0 is below par but he has slugged out 29 home runs and batted in [illegible].

Hauser's war club played a big part in Minneapolis' 5 to 2 victory over St. Paul yesterday. He belted Lou Fette, the St. Paul starting hurler, for a home run and a single, driving in two of the Miller runs.

Milwaukee scored its second straight victory over Kansas City, 6 to 5, in a night game, keeping the Blues from gaining ground on [illegible] with St. Paul. The Blues had a 4 to 1 lead after three innings but the Brewers rallied for three in the fourth and picked up another in the seventh.

Two home runs by Ted Gullic and one each by Lin Storti and Chet Laabs were factors in all the Brewer runs.

The victory increased Milwaukee's margin over St. Paul to 1½ games.

Indianapolis muffed a chance of picking up ground on Kansas City by dropping an 8 to 3 decision to Louisville in another night game. Jack Tising and Wayne LaMaster held the Indians to six hits.

Columbus and Toledo were rained out.
